

KEEP THE FLAG

Floating High, is the Motto of the Canton
High School Seniors.

BUT IT TAKES NERVE

As a result of some strenuous labors and the display of the steadiest nerve the colors of the Senior class of the High school float triumphantly from the tower of the High school building, and not only that but the topmost portion of the float is decorated with gold and white paint which may be seen from the furthestmost parts of the city. The entrance on the east side of the building, too, is painted with gold and white and the figures '07. The deed was done some time Saturday night by some boys and it is one of the most remarkable instances of the display of nerve ever shown by the boys in their attempts to raise the colors of their class above the others of the school and there is no doubt but that it was as complete a job as has ever been done.

This has been one of the customary acts done by the members of the Senior and Junior classes of the High school and last year after the Seniors and Juniors had finished their fun, it cost the board of education thirty-five dollars to have the tower cleaned up and made impregnable to the efforts of the students, with the result shown by the present highly decorated appearance of the tower. The steeple-jack who was employed at that time stated that it was useless to attempt to keep the students from the tower, for if they could not get up on the inside, they would have nerve enough to climb up the outside, and it appears as though he spoke the truth.

It has been the work of the authorities to keep down the class spirit which showed itself in many ways in the past couple of years, but as the pressure on the Seniors and Juniors increases, in like proportion the class feeling increases, although there are few opportunities to show it.

The tower of the High school building is over 125 feet high and it is a matter of conjecture to many, how the boys were able to raise their streamers to the topmost point, a feat which an experienced steeple-jack would hesitate to do in the night. The Seniors kept a patrol of the building all last night to prevent the Juniors from changing the decorations, although there is much doubt as to whether there are any Juniors with sufficient nerve to attempt to reach the dizzy heights of the tower.

At 8:30 o'clock last evening about 20 of the Juniors put in an appearance at the High school building, each one having attempted to imitate the dress and appearance of a burglar, made as if to enter the building. Several Seniors saw them and put them to rout, two of the Seniors continuing in the chase, until they caught up to the Juniors when a free-for-all fight occurred with the result that the Juniors "lit out" faster than ever, having been badly beaten up.

A band of the Seniors scoured the vicinity of the school building until a

IN THE SPRINGTIME.

The following simple prescription, which anyone can prepare at home is said to restore the kidneys to perfect health, forcing them to filter all poisons and acids from the blood, overcoming Rheumatism, even in its worst form.

Any good druggist can supply these ingredients: Fluid extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake these well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

Your physician will tell you there is no better or safer mixture known to cleanse the blood and build it up, which everyone should do at this time of year. Readers of this paper can make no mistake by following this simple though valuable advice.

late hour in the night evidently looking for trouble in the shape of Juniors, but they were unsuccessful. A guard of five or six policemen were stationed at the building to prevent further trouble.

CANTON SOCIETY

Of New York Held a Banquet Saturday Night at Which Good Speeches Were Made.

At the banquet of the Canton Society of New York at the Hotel Manhattan, Saturday night, about 100 members sat down to the board to partake of an excellent menu, and to listen to some fine speeches by many of the former Cantonians. A souvenir program was placed at each plate having a picture of the McKinley monument upon it, and after the menu had been served, with Nicholas A. Bour as toastmaster, the toasts were responded to as follows: "William A. Lynch, a Laudatory Appreciation of that Ohio Jurist," by Hon. Virgil P. Kline; "Reminiscences and Presentiments," by F. E. Case; others by Col. J. J. McCook, Rev. Charles Edward Locke, William S. Hawk, Charles P. Bruch and Ernest E. Baldwin.

The speakers on the program for the evening were: Hon. Virgil P. Kline, of Cleveland; Col. J. J. McCook, F. E. Case, William S. Hawk, Charles Bruch, C. A. Macauley, S. T. Cobb, and F. C. Ulman, of Massillon; John C. Welty, Rev. Charles E. Locke, Ernest E. Baldwin, and Charles Krichbaum, all of whom were present with the exception of the last four named.

In his speech on "William A. Lynch," Judge Kline spoke of Canton's great lawyer who but recently passed away, in the highest terms of the many things which made him loved by his associates. Mr. Case and Colonel McCook both spoke in a humorous vein telling of many passed experiences in Canton.

It was proposed in the evening by Colonel McCook that the Canton Society of New York be merged with the Ohio Society, but it was opposed by William S. Hawk, who stated that it would be well for all to join the Ohio Society, but that the Canton Society should still retain its identity.

GRAND ARMY POSTS

Represented at Impressive Memorial Services Under Direction of Ex-Prisoners of War.

New York, April 28.—All the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in Brooklyn and many outside posts were represented this afternoon at a impressive memorial service held in Plymouth church under the direction of the New York Association of Union ex-Prisoners of War.

The veterans, of whom about 1500 were in attendance, wore their Grand Army uniforms and the church was handsomely decorated with flags and Grand Army standards. A splendid specimen of an American eagle was the centerpiece on the platform. Silas B. Dutcher presided and addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Newell D. Hillis, the pastor, Gen. Robert Avery, Col. Warren L. Goss, and Joseph I. Tillgore, commander of the association. Recitations, musical selections and the singing of patriotic songs made up a most interesting program. General Horatio C. King, of U. S. Grant post, had charge of the music.

At the Grand. J. B. Baxter, the wonderful baritone who sang the illustrated songs for the moving picture show at the Grand last evening made a great hit with the audience, every number being received with great enthusiasm and applause. He favored with "When Life's Blue Sky Turns to Grey," and "Alice, Where Art Thou Going?" which proved most pleasing to the audience. "Won't You Come Over to My House?" was sung by request and an enthusiastic encore was demanded. An excellent program of pictures was shown, and the management announces that it will aim to get even better ones for their show next Sunday evening.

FARMERS FOUGHT

Two Are Dead and Two Mortally Wounded.

New Orleans, April 28.—As the result of a public school celebration at Vicksburg, Avoyelles Parish, two prominent farmers of that neighborhood are dead, two mortally wounded, and two others seriously wounded. The trouble resulted from a fight between two boys at the celebration. W. H. Sayes, stopped the fight and lectured the boys for the disturbance. One of them, a son of Truman Clark, told his father, that Sayes had slapped him. Clark knocked the peacekeeper down, and his brother-in-law, S. T. Shannon, joined in the fight and stabbed the fallen man several times. Sayes managed in spite of loss of blood to get to his feet, and fired his pistol four times, each bullet bringing down a man, one killed Henry Clark, a brother of his assailant, another a looker on, while the remaining two mortally wounded Truman Clark and young McGann.
